There's no such thing as free solar panels or free government solar programs. Most "free" offers are actually leases, power purchase agreements, loans or scams.

There are two main types of free solar deals: leases and PPAs. Both work like this: the company puts panels on your property for free, but they own the panels, not you. With a solar lease, ...

The Department of Energy is aware of claims of offers for free solar panels or that solar companies must provide solar panels for free if requested. However, the federal government does ...

You've likely seen the enticing ads: "Get Solar Panels for Free!" and wondered if it's too good to be true. The short answer is that while no company gives away solar panels to own for free, ...

"Free solar panels" aren't free; typically, these programs refer to solar leases or PPAs. The federal government does not provide free solar panels, but many states and utilities offer ...

While free solar panels may seem like a great deal, in almost every case we can think of, they aren't actually free. "I have never seen an advertisement offering free solar that is not a...

Are "free" solar panels really free? Except for very rare cases, it's unlikely that you'll be able to install solar panels at no cost whatsoever or that the government is "giving them away."

"Free" solar panels are essentially rented from solar companies. While you will reap the benefits of cheaper electricity bills through solar power, you do not own the panels; the solar...
