They seem to disappear after a while due to glitches and most of the time they vanish when an update comes out.

Once dropped, it cannot be picked up unless it has an empty inventory. An editable label is located on the top of the Waterproof Locker. It can support up to ten characters. It is useful for players who need ...

Destroying waterproof lockers is possible, but it will cost you extra resources instead of reclaiming any spent on them. If you didn't build it with the Habitat Builder, you can't deconstruct it. So now you ...

Do Not feel like making lockers just to get rid of them. This might make more problems than it solves, but you can pick them up and transport them to the void (edge of the map) and drop ...

They have 5&#215;6 (30) item slots, and attempting to deconstruct a Wall Locker that contains items is not possible, resulting in a notification that the container is not empty.

To dismantle a locker in Subnautica, just use the habitat builder and aim at the locker. You'll see a "Deconstruct" option pop up!

You can only get rid of them, not reclaim anything from them. To get rid of them on Experimental: Put them into a trash can (not a biological trash can, just regular).

You can dispose of the lockers via the Trashcan, but there is no way to recover the Titanium used to make them.
